Sanford | Saarinen Executive Armchair

$692.00

Description

Available with either a metal or wood leg base, our Sanford armchair and side dining chair collection includes quality reproductions of the classic mid-century executive chair design. These versatile chairs are suitable for either home or commercial use, everywhere from the dining room to meeting room spaces. Comparable to the original, our Sanford armchair is constructed with a molded reinforced polyurethane shell that provides slight flex for extra comfort, and polished stainless steel legs. The seat is padded in dense foam cushion with matching full surround welt detail, and is upholstered in a range of fabric options. If you have a specific requirement for a project, we're happy to help. Please contact one of our professionals to discuss your requirements.
